- 6) re-election of Staffan Jufors as chairman of the Board;
- 7) re-election of KPMG AB as auditor for the period until the 2025 AGM;
- 8) adoption of the following principles concerning the company's Nomination Committee:

The Nomination Committee consists of four members. The chairman of the Board shall at the end of the third quarter 2024 contact the four largest identified shareholders and encourage them to appoint their representatives for the Nomination Committee. If a shareholder elects not to appoint a representative, the right to appoint a member passes to the next largest shareholder (provided such shareholder has not already appointed or is entitled to appoint a member). If a member resigns, the shareholder appointing the resigning member shall be asked to appoint another member. The chairman of the Nomination Committee shall be the member appointed by the largest shareholder (unless the Nomination Committee agrees otherwise).

The Nomination Committee shall act in the interest of all shareholders. The duties of the Nomination Committee shall include to evaluate the Board's constitution and work, and to make proposals for the AGM regarding:

- election of chairman for the AGM,
- number of Board members,
- election of the Board and the chairman of the Board,
- election of auditor (in cooperation with the Board's audit committee),
- remuneration of the Board, the Board's committees and the auditor, and
- the Nomination Committee for the next AGM.

The mandate of the Nomination Committee is valid until a new Nomination Committee has been constituted. In case of material ownership changes during the mandate period, the Nomination Committee shall ensure that a new large shareholder is represented in the Nomination Committee. The constitution of the Nomination Committee shall be announced not later than six months before the AGM.

The members of the Nomination Committee receive no compensation from the company but are entitled to reimbursement for reasonable expenses.
